"This site is amazing. I love the fact that I can exchange all of the books that I have read (and will probably never read again) for new books. I am an avid reader and have saved so much money with this site. You guys have done a fantastic job and I will recommend this site to everyone that I know."

"The 'wish list' system is genius. I am gradually getting all the books on my list and they have been in as good or better condition than the online used book market. We home educate with a literature-based curriculum and the swap has already saved us a substantial amount of money in costs for books for our next year's schooling. Additionally, the swap is simple to use and not nearly as time consuming as buying and selling at online auctions or used book sites. A wonderful find!"
